The To Grace chair, designed for the Chris Beardshaw Mentoring Scheme Garden at RHS Chelsea Flower Show 2009, now has a permanent home at Desmond Tutu's Peace Garden, in South East London.

Created to evoke the silver-gilt winning garden's theme 'A Dawn Chorus', it will now be enjoyed by the whole community in Lewisham's Chinbrook Meadow Peace Garden.

Archbishop Desmond Tutu and Terry Waite CBE formally opened the garden in July 09, alongside the designer of the garden, TV presenter and designer, Chris Beardshaw. The peace garden is sited just 150 yards from Archbishop Tutu's former home in Grove Park in the 1970's.
